

TROOP 346

BASIC WEEKEND CAMPING TRIP PERSONAL GEAR LIST

(THIS IS NOT A REQUIRED LIST. PLEASE USE AS A GUIDE FOR PACKING)

Backpack or Duffel Bag (to tote your stuff)

Sleeping Bag

Sleeping Bag Liner/Blanket (optional they add warmth to a sleeping bag)

Sleeping Pad (optional)

Pillow (optional)

Jacket (appropriate for the weather)

Gloves (optional depending on the weather)

Stocking Hat (optional depending on the weather)

Sweatshirt (optional depending on the weather)

Long Underwear top and bottom (optional depending on the weather)

Scout Uniform (only if told you will need it)

Change of Clothes (how many changes depends on the length of trip)

Change includes shirt, pants, underwear, and socks (appropriate for the weather)

Extra Socks

Clothes to Sleep In (optional but recommended)

These are separate from your changes of clothes and should be appropriate for the weather. Sleeping in clothes that you wore during the day that could be damp from sweat will make you cold at night

Rain Jacket or Poncho

Rain Pants (personal choice, optional)

Flashlight or Headlamp w/ fresh batteries or extra batteries

Water Bottle

Small Day Pack (optional)

Toiletry Kit (toothpaste, tooth brush, soap, washcloth, etc...)

Toilet Paper in a Ziploc Bag

Your Scout Handbook (optional)

Pen and Paper (optional)

Knife (if you have earned your Whittling Chip)

Personal First Aid Kit (can be made at home, few baid-aids, gauze pads, tape...)

Sun Block/Insect Protection (appropriate for the weather)

Ball Cap (optional appropriate for the weather)

Camp Chair (optional)

Personal Medication, medication must be in the original container/packaging.

Prescription medication must be in the original prescription bottle. Prescription bottle must have the Scout's name and dosing instructions on the label.